NINTH ANNUAL MUTTS AND MODELS – Follow the Yellow Brick Road to the Wizard of Pawz...

Denver, CO (April 14, 2010) – The 9th Annual Mutts and Models is Denver's original & premiere canine and celebrity fashion show. Guests will delight in watching a unique fashion show featuring local philanthropists and local celebrities modeling with their dogs. All proceeds benefit Harrison Memorial Animal Hospital. Attendees will have the opportunity to bid high and bid often in the live and silent auctions and enjoy socializing with other Coloradans coming together to raise an expected $100,000 for the animals in need of veterinary care at Harrison Memorial Animal Hospital.

Harrison Memorial Animal Hospital (HMAH), a program of the Colorado Veterinary Medical Foundation is Colorado's largest not- for -profit veterinary hospital, employing highly qualified doctors and staff. HMAH provides spay and neuter services to the general public, and donor subsidized veterinary services to animals of seniors, disabled, and income-qualified clients who otherwise might not receive much needed medical care. Annually HMAH treats 12,000 animals, performing nearly 20,000 procedures.
